

MATT & CO

Soul • Motown • Rock n Roll • 50s/60s Classics

About the Band

Matt & Co are one of the Northwest's most enduring and enjoyable live bands, keeping the classic sounds of Soul, Motown, Rock 'n' Roll, British Blues and 50s/60s favourites alive with heart, humour and a soul. They've spent decades playing the music people always say they miss - the songs that filled dancefloors for generations and still light up a room the moment they begin.

Everywhere they go, they hear the same thing: "No one plays this music anymore." But Matt & Co do - and they do it with warmth, energy and a genuine love for the songs.

Their gigs are loud, lively and full of life. Dancefloors fill early and stay full, Northern Soul dancers appear at the front, and whole rooms end up singing along to songs they haven't heard in years. It's a proper night out - nostalgic without being dated, energetic without being chaotic, and familiar without ever feeling predictable.

Matt & Co aren't a tribute act, a function band or a nostalgia show. They're a group of seasoned musicians who play classic music the way it was meant to be played: live, warm, soulful and full of personality.
